Exec Security TSCM specializes in technical surveillance countermeasures (TSCM), providing electronic privacy sweeps for businesses and corporations.

Uncovering eavesdropping threats requires highly trained and well-equipped personnel. It involves understanding the vulnerabilities and performing sophisticated electronic tests as well as a thorough physical inspection of the target area.

New and emerging technologies appear regularly. We keep up to date with training and equipment to enhance our ability to counter technical surveillance threats.

Information Protection

Electronic surveillance devices can be easily obtained yet difficult to detect, making them very dangerous to your business.

Unauthorized audio and video surveillance is a threat that all businesses must address. Exposure of confidential information or private discussions can lead to significant financial loss and serious legal problems.

Be Proactive

Add surveillance countermeasures to your security program. Contact us for a consultation or with any questions you may have.

Exec Security TSCM is dedicated to providing discreet and professional services. All security matters are highly confidential. Our standards of honesty and ethics are unsurpassed.

Vulnerabilities exist where ever information is exchanged. Best practices include regularly scheduled sweeps of critical offices as well as areas such as residences, vehicles, conference facilities, and any location where confidential communication takes place.
